2013 Summer Safari Day Camps

A week long adventure filled with fun and socialization in a safe, supervised environment.

Camp funded in part by a grant from Angels for Autism of Southeast Texas

WHAT IS ARC SUMMER SAFARI DAY CAMP?

Group games, arts & crafts, basketball, volleyball, soccer, and bowling are only a few of the great activities scheduled for camp! Camp counselors are all experienced teachers and aids who have worked with kids with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Visual supports will be provided to help with daily schedules, transitions and basic routines and expectations. We will provide sensory stimulation toys and activities to help enhance your child's development .

It's a great opportunity for safe, fun play and social interaction for our kids

WHO CAN COME?

Children and young adults with intellectual or developmental disabilities are eligible. Kid and Teen camp have designated age range so there will be age-appropriate activities for each group.
