

Haley Greer manages The Arc of Texas master Pooled Trust; a supplemental needs trust that provides people with disabilities an ongoing source of money for supplemental wants and needs. Haley is responsible for assisting families in establishing trust accounts; keeping up with current Medicaid regulations; approving and reporting trust disbursements; communicating with attorneys, judges and the banks about trust issues; and educating local Arc chapters and other interested groups about the benefits of the trust. Prior to joining The Arc of Texas, Haley worked for many years in the Texas House of Representatives and focused primarily on legislation related to workforce development, health and human services, and school finance.

Haley received her undergraduate degree from The University of Texas at Austin in 2004 and her Law degree from Saint Louis University in 2010. She was admitted to the Texas Bar November of 2010.
